MEDIA ADVISORY

PROTEST AT SAN DIEGO FAMILY COURT BUILDING DEMANDS JUSTICE AND SAFETY FOR ABUSED BOYS, HIGHLIGHTS FAILURES OF FAMILY COURTS IN CUSTODY DECISIONS

WHO: “Cindy D,” mother whose story has recently grabbed the attention of California legislators and officials after a StopFamilyViolence.org letter writing campaign called for help in protecting her abused sons who have been failed by the San Diego Family Court; Other mothers who have lost custody or unsupervised visitation with their children after family courts place children with abusers; Family court reform advocates; Supporters and other concerned citizens.

WHAT: To protest the failure of the family court to appropriately protect children who have reported abuse, and their protective parent, and to demand children’s reports be heard, properly investigated, and acted on. To illuminate the crisis in the family courts nationwide that puts an estimated 58,000 children a year into custody or unsupervised visitation with abusers.

WHEN: Thursday, June 25th, 11:30am-1:00pm

WHERE: San Diego Family Court Building
1555 Sixth Ave., San Diego
